COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

To the Citizens of Coos County:

The Commissioners of the County of Coos herewith submit their annual report for the year ending April 30, 1891, together with the reports of the Superintendent of the Almshouse, Physician, Clerk of the Court, Sheriff, Jailor, Solicitor, County Treasurer and Auditors.

We have, agreeably to the vote of the County Convention of 1889, built a new jail on the site of the old one at Lancaster, with twelve cells (or cages) of a capacity to accommodate, conveniently, twenty-four prisoners—the lower tier of six cells being burglar-proof steel, the upper tier of six cells iron. It was constructed by the "Van Dorn Iron Works of Cleveland, Ohio," and the contract price for the job was the amount of the appropriation, $5000, their contract covering the expense of taking down the old jail. It is built on a modern plan, and we think the sanitary arrangements are particularly good. We are pleased to be able to state that the job was completed within the appropriation, which is much less than it was anticipated so satisfactory a job could be done for.

Under the very efficient management of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman G. Marshall the affairs of the County Farm and Almshouse have, in our judgment, been particularly well conducted. The health of the inmates has been, on the whole, excellent, and the death rate—considering their natural condition—seems phenomenally small to us, and positive proof of the good care and management of the institution. The expense per week per capita of keeping the inmates has been $1.12+, a decided decrease from last year. This is entirely owing to the management of the Farm and Almshouse, and not from any change of quality or quantity of food or clothing of the inmates, which has been kept fully up to the standard of this and other institutions of its kind throughout the State.

There was an imperative necessity of increased facilities for heating the Court House at Lancaster. To meet this we have, during the past season, put in a LeBosquet Bros. boiler to heat the offices on the lower floor of the House, and for heating the court room and upper part of the House we have had the old boiler repaired and the piping in the court room changed and replaced by larger pipe, so that there is, now, sufficient radiating surface in all the rooms to make them comfortable in the coldest weather. The two boilers are entirely separate, so that to heat the offices of the Register of Deeds, Probate office and office of the Clerk of Court, it is only necessary to use the small boiler, whereby there must be a large saving of fuel. The cost of these changes, including the price of the new boiler, was $874.51. We have also put into the jail house cellar a LeBosquet Bros. boiler, which heats the house and new jail, at a cost of $442.00. These and about $125.00 expended in sheathing the Court House at Colebrook and the building of a new ash-house at the Almshouse—at an expense of $85.00—are all the permanent repairs done during the year.

The Treasurer's Report, herewith, is referred to for the financial standing of the County. The reduction of the County debt has been $547.38—not as much as we had hoped, but as much as could be expected, considering the permanent repairs referred to, and the fact that the tax for current expenses was $5000 less than it had been for some years previous. The County buildings, with the exception of the jail-house and barn, are all in good repair, and $1000 was appropriated for the purpose of repairing those, which will be expended the present season.

With one exception Coos County has the smallest debt of any County in the State, and if we recover in the "insurance cases" will be, practically, out of debt.

The invitation to visit the Almshouse and examine the methods there, which we gave last year, is extended, and we trust the opportunity will be improved this year by those who take an interest in the affairs there, and any suggestions that may be made will be duly considered.

We wish to impress on the minds of the Overseers of the Poor and Selectmen throughout the County that the proper place for County paupers is at the Almshouse, where they can be much better cared for and at a less cost than can possibly be done away from there, and that in case of sickness, if possible, they should be sent there before they are unable to go. Leaving them in some tumble-down hovel to half starve and freeze on a pittance because they have a prejudice against going to the Almshouse, is not charity, humanity, or economy.

We thank all who have had anything to do with the poor of the County during the past year for their uniform courtesy to us. Respectfully submitted,

LEVI SHEDD,	}	County Commissioners.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

WEST STEWARTSTOWN, N. H., April 30, 1891.

To the County Commissioners of Coos County:—

GENTLEMEN In handing you my annual report of the Coos County Poor Farm I take pleasure in saying that at no time in the history of the Institution has the health and condition of the inmates been more satisfactory than at present. The Superintendent and his staff have proven themselves fully equal to the occasion, and the care and attention bestowed in times of sickness and in health merits hearty commendation.

There have been no deaths from acute diseases during the year, while the "chronics" and "incurables," for the greater part, live to good old ages. The deaths for the year have been:

July 10, 1890, John Moran, aged 68, insanity.

Oct. 6, 1890, ——— Godfrey, aged 50, heart disease.

Dec. 9, 1890, Charles Sweet, aged 74, consumption.

Feb. 21, 1891, Charles Fellows, aged 24, hip disease.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT.

To the Citizens of Coos County:

Since making my last annual report, no serious crimes have been committed within the county. No civil suits are pending, in favor of or against the county, excepting the suits brought to recover the insurance on the Court house. These suits involve a question of law and are consequently before the full bench awaiting the final decision of the Supreme Court of the state. As before reported, these cases were tried before a jury and a decision rendered in favor of the county, and upon the facts thus found the legal question above referred to is based.

I beg leave to state that immediately after the October term of Court, 1890, I was attacked by a severe malady which continued for three months, making it impossible for me to attend the February term of Court at Colebrook. In consequence thereof A. S. Twitchell, Esq., of Gorham, was appointed by the Court to discharge the duties of solicitor for that term.

Following is a list of criminal cases disposed of at the September term at Colebrook:

State vs Almon Cross, adultery, continued.
W. C. Day, selling liquor, not to be brought forward.
Charlotte R. and Wellington Sawyer, larceny, continued.
Cyril Brooks, selling liquor, not to be brought forward.
Joseph Jolbert, selling liquor, same as above.
Joseph Jolbert, selling liquor, same as above.
Al J. Richardson, adultery, same as above.
David McConnell, appeal, dismissed.
Charles F. Presby, appeal, dismissed.
Elmer G. Annis, indictment selling mortgaged property, con'd.
Thomas Pinckney, fraud, continued.
J. W. Tibbetts, selling liquor, continued.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

The undersigned, Auditors of the County of Coos, having attended to their duties as specified by law, respectfully submit that they have carefully examined the accounts of the Commissioners, Treasurer and all other county officers, and find the same correctly cast and properly vouched for. We have examined the various bills and vouchers and found that the goods purchased were for the use of the county, and that the prices paid for goods bought and received, and for those sold, was in our judgment at their market value.
